Arena Rules

- Non-members: pay the drop-in fees and sign all required waiver of liability forms.
- Sign in every time you ride in the facility, even if you have a paid membership.
- Anyone under the age of 18 must wear a helmet unless a waiver is signed by the parent or guardian.
- Manure must be picked up inside and outside the arena, including the parking lot. Rakes and tubs are provided (to be put back in arena when done). Please empty tubs in the dumpster.
- Use arena etiquette and respect other riders.
- Respect all equipment within the Equine Centre, put away any/all equipment when you are done with it.
- Leave the ground as you found it. Raking is appreciated (filling in holes), especially if you have worked barrels.
- Maintain control of your horse; do not leave horses unattended and do not let horses wander around unsupervised.
- No tying directly to panels. Please use available tie rings.
- No stallion tied up inside the arena in any circumstance, you must tie up your stallion outside the arena. Please put a ribbon on your stallion.
- If you have a horse that kicks/bites please put a ribbon on it.
- If you or your horse is responsible for any damage to the facility or equipment within the facility please report this to a Director.
- Inform a Director of any damage or maintenance required in the facility.
- Report suspected abuse of the facility to the Equine Centre President or Vice-President.
- Barrels are permitted in the arena at unscheduled times, but only if no one else is riding. Public riding takes priority (except Thursdays). Every Thursday, all day, barrel racing has priority over public riding.
- Be a responsible equine owner and only bring healthy horses to the facility.
- All riders are encouraged to hold current Alberta Equine Federation insurance.
- Riders are to mount and dismount in the arena only.
- No unauthorized riding outside the arena.
- No smoking.
- No dogs.
- Children must be supervised by an adult at all times.
